

| | |
|---|---------------------|
| I am Eve - I am struggling because my children hate each other | Genesis 4:8 |
| I am Hagar - I am struggling because I have been discarded for a new family and forced to become a single parent. | Genesis 21:9-10 |
| We are Leah and Rachel - we are struggling with the pain of a dysfunctional family. | Genesis 29:31-30:24 |
| I am Rachel , I am suffering the emptiness and self-doubt of childlessness. | Genesis 30:1 |
| I am Moses' mother, I am struggling because I was forced to give up my baby because it wasn't safe for me to keep him | Exodus 1:22-2:4 |
| I am Pharaoh's daughter, I was called to love and nurture children that weren't mine by birth. | Exodus 2:10 |
| The bible doesn't record our name, but we were anonymous victims of male violence, | Judges 19:25-end |
| I am Naomi - I am struggling because I have tasted the bitterness of my child's death. | Ruth 1:3-5 |
| I am Hannah , I am struggling because I was separated from my child at a young age. | 1 Samuel 1:21-end |
| I am Timothy's mother and I am Timothy's grandmother , we are striving to pass on our faith and our values to our children. | 2 Timothy 1:5 |